CALL FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A POOL OF EXPERTS OF THE CULTURAL HERITAGE IN ACTION PROJECT

Deadline: 11 February 2022

In the context of the Cultural Heritage in Action project, Eurocities asbl (as project leader) is looking for high-level experts with different backgrounds (academia, consultancy, international organisations or local administrations) to complete a consortium team bringing together a unique experience of working with cities, regions and stakeholders on cultural heritage. The objective of this call is to create a pool of experts able to provide specific support for cities, regions and stakeholders to build this expertise. External experts will be selected based on their knowledge of the topics covered in the scheme and on their experience in working with local and regional governments. In particular, selected external experts should have extensive experience and expertise in cultural heritage policies and urban/regional development as well as coaching, facilitation, moderation and audience engagement methods.

ENRICH YOUR E-LIBRARY

As a joint initiative with ENCATC, the Arts and Cultural Management Conference (ACMC) invites students and emerging professionals to a unique platform to present their research, to exchange knowledge and to expand their professional network. A variety of different formats (paper presentations, lectures, workshops) will allow new theory and practice-based insights, as well as sharing and exploring within this diverse and international group. Inputs from our international keynote speakers will initiate further discussions on the topics. The theme of this year is "A Space for More Voices and New Ways", and includes the following subthemes: Ways to hear more voices: visibility, diversity, inclusion, underrepresentation; Ways to address stringent current challenges: accessibility, digitalisation, mental health; and Ways to be adapted and integrated in the field: sustainability, entrepreneurship.
