SPECIAL ISSUE: 2022 CONGRESS ON CULTURAL MANAGEMENT AND POLICY

Brussels, 05/10/2022

Dear colleagues, members and friends,

I have the pleasure to share with you the new edition of the ENCATC News, our monthly publication aimed this month to inform you on the wide variety of topics that are covered in the programme of our upcoming Congress that will take place in little less than two weeks, from 17-19 October 2022, in Brussels and Antwerp (Belgium).

This September we have been working hard to finalize the preparation of our 30th edition of the Congress. The results of this teamwork are reported in our monthly newsletter that was designed to give you a taste of what you could expect by attending this unique global gathering of cultural experts, leaders and practitioners. This ENCATC News covers the most relevant topics and sessions that all of you who will attend the 2022 ENCATC Congress will certainly appreciate to look at closely.

To date, we already have over 110 speakers from 30 countries that are coming to contribute to advance what is promising to be a very rich and insightful debate on internationalization. This newsletter and the 2022 Congress show how much our network stays highly dynamic, innovative and wealthy in creative and mindful professionals.

We hope that this special edition of the newsletter will inspire all of you still hesitating to come to join us in Brussels to prepare your luggage and be among us! Come experience the liveliness of a network that endeavors day after day to take the most of our contemporary interconnectedness, for the benefit of knowledge and the advancement of cultural policy and management.

*Please bear in mind there is still time to register for the event. You will find plenty of reasons why you should come and take part on the 2022 Congress on this very complete Congress Special Edition Newsletter. Make sure you register before the deadline, 13 October 2022.
